Molly and her kittens live in feline luxury at their very own cat café in the Cotswolds village of Stourton. People flock from far and wide to visit the café, lured by delicious baked goods and adorable cats. For owner Debbie, Molly and her kittens, life is good. Or so they thought? When Debbie's sister Linda turns up unannounced and heartbroken, Debbie insists she stay at the café. What Debbie doesn't realize is that Linda's arrived with an unwelcome guest - a dog called Beau. However, there's one thing the cats hate in their café - dogs. With Christmas approaching, Molly feels as if her home and family are both under threat. But fate has another surprise in store for the cat café's residents, which leaves both Debbie and Molly floundering. Suddenly Molly's future is far from certain...

Lizzy and Luke have returned to HorrorLand with television reporters to show the world the deadly dangers of the park, including such all-new attractions as Torture Mountain, Dungeon of No Return, and Buzzard Beach.

Everyone knows about Hill House. It's the biggest tourist attraction in town. That's because it's haunted. Haunted by the ghost of a thirteen-year-old boy. A boy with no head!

There is something wrong with the old camera Greg found. When Greg takes a picture of his father's new car, it's wrecked in the photo. Then his dad crashes the car. It's like the camera can tell the future, or maybe it makes the future!

La casa era disabitata da anni, per lo meno da quanto ricordavano Greg e i ragazzi. Sarà stato per questo che in città si raccontavano strane storie su Villa Coffman, che avevano per protagonisti fantasmi inconsolabili o crudeli assassini assetati di sangue che in quelle stanze si erano macchiati di efferati delitti.

Convinced that there is something creepy about his new piano teacher, Jerry soon hears terrifying stories about Dr. Shreek's music school and students who never completed their lesson alive.

The searing conclusion of the thrilling epic fantasy trilogy that saw a young girl trained by an arcane order of nuns grow into the fiercest of warriors... They came against her as a child. Now they face the woman. The ice is advancing, the Corridor narrowing, and the empire is under siege from the Scithrowl in the east and the Durns in the west. Everywhere, the emperor's armies are in retreat. Nona Grey faces the final challenges that must be overcome if she is to become a full sister in the order of her choice. But it seems unlikely that she and her friends will have time to earn a nun's habit before war is on their doorstep. Even a warrior like Nona cannot hope to turn the tide of war. The shiphearts offer strength that she might use to protect those she loves, but it's a power that corrupts. A final battle is coming in which she will be torn between friends, unable to save them all. A battle in which her own demons will try to unmake her. A battle in which hearts will be broken, lovers lost, thrones burned.

In addition to her grandparents' unusual fatigue and their farm's unusual barrenness, Jodie notices the single scarecrow that once stood in the cornfield has been replaced by a dozen creepy ones that come to life at night.

Sourball. That's what Greg calls his English teacher, Mr. Saur. He's a real grouch. And he just gave Greg a big fat "F" on his oral report. He didn't believe Greg's story. About the camera Greg found last summer. About the pictures it took. About the evil things that happened. Poor Greg. He just wanted to prove old Sourball wrong. But now that he's dug up the camera, bad things are happening. Really bad things. Just like the first time...

Attaining fantastic mental abilities after drinking alien-made brain juice, Nathan and Micah become targeted by the aliens, who are seeking a few good, exceptionally smart, young humans.

The school year is finished, exams are over and summer stretches before seventeen-year-old Federico, full of promise and opportunity. But then he accepts a request from one of his teachers to help out at a youth club in the destitute Sicilian neighbourhood of Brancaccio. This narrow tangle of alleyways is controlled by local mafia thugs, but it is also the home of children like Francesco, Maria, Dario, Totò: children with none of Federico's privileges, but with a strength and vitality that changes his life forever. Written in intensely passionate and lyrical prose, What Hell Is Not is the phenomenal Italian bestseller about a man who brought light to one of the darkest corners of Sicily, and who refused to give up on the future of its children.

An American bioengineering research firm erects a theme park on a Caribbean island, complete with living dinosaurs, and invites a group of scientists to be its first terrified guests.

Strange things happen when Greg starts using the camera he and his friends found.

Two years ago, one mistake cost Gideon Royal the girl of his dreams. Since then he's become jaded and stoic, caught in a spiral that has him dealing with blackmail, heartache and loss. When he left for college, he hoped to start over. But fate has other ideas, placing Savannah Montgomery in his path again. Savannah believes there's no coming back from Gideon's betrayal. He thinks she's wrong. Forgiveness. Hope. Redemption. Gideon has vowed to win back the only girl who owns his heart. And when a Royal makes a promise, he'll go to the ends of the earth to keep it.

In a small North Carolina town, a mysterious and beautiful woman running from her past slowly falls for a kind-hearted store owner . . . until dark secrets begin to threaten her new life. When a mysterious young woman named Katie appears in the small North Carolina town of Southport, her sudden arrival raises questions about her past. Beautiful yet self-effacing, Katie seems determined to avoid forming personal ties until a series of events draws her into two reluctant relationships: one with Alex, a widowed store owner with a kind heart and two young children; and another with her plainspoken single neighbor, Jo. Despite her reservations, Katie slowly begins to let down her guard, putting down roots in the close-knit community and becoming increasingly attached to Alex and his family. But even as Katie begins to fall in love, she struggles with the dark secret that still haunts and terrifies her . . . a past that set her on a fearful, shattering journey across the country, to the sheltered oasis of Southport. With Jo's empathetic and stubborn support, Katie eventually realizes that she must choose between a life of transient safety and one of riskier rewards . . . and that in the darkest hour, love is the only true safe haven.

Quando il passato è ottenebrato dai rimorsi, solo una luce può rischiarare il futuro. Cosa possono avere in comune un cantante rock e una ragazza vissuta nel 1800? Potrebbe sembrare nulla, ma la storia di Richard e Lidya vi dimostrerà che un collegamento può esserci. Dopo una breve gavetta, Richard Harvey riesce ad affermarsi nel panorama musicale londinese ed europeo. Ha rincorso la celebrità, sacrificando le amicizie, gli affetti familiari e i propri valori. Alla soglia della vecchiaia, si accorge che quanto ha ottenuto non lo ripaga di ciò che ha perduto. Un forte senso d'inutilità, il rimorso e la solitudine lo stanno conducendo verso un grave stato depressivo. Decide di affittare un piccolo castello a Filey, nel North Yorkshire e di rimanervi rinchiuso finché avrà scritto la sua biografia. Svelerà tutti i suoi segreti come atto di riscatto per una intera vita di bugie. In quello stesso castello, più di duecento anni prima, aveva vissuto Lidya, la figlia dei custodi. Una ragazza semplice, dolce e intelligente che, fin da piccola, coltivava il suo profondo amore per il figlio dei castellani. Un sentimento maturato con il trascorrere degli anni, ma destinato a incontrare molti ostacoli. Due storie totalmente diverse e separate dal tempo, ma che conosceranno un punto di connessione. Sarà quella fugace interconnessione che costituirà la salvezza per entrambi.
