This is the delightfully warm and enjoyable story of an old Parisian named Armand, who relished his solitary life. Children, he said, were like starlings, and one was better off without them. But the children who lived under the bridge recognized a true friend when they met one, even if the friend seemed a trifle unwilling at the start. And it did not take Armand very long to realize that he had gotten himself ready-made family; one that he loved with all his heart, and one for whom he would have to find a better home than the bridge. Armand and the children's adventures around Paris -- complete with gypsies and a Santa Claus -- make a story which children will treasure.

The idea of "The Green Book" is to give the Motorist and Tourist a Guide not only of the Hotels and Tourist Homes in all of the large cities, but other classifications that will be found useful wherever he may be. Also facts and information that the Negro Motorist can use and depend upon. There are thousands of places that the public doesn't know about and aren't listed. Perhaps you know of some? If so send in their names and addresses and the kind of business, so that we might pass it along to the rest of your fellow Motorists. You will find it handy on your travels, whether at home or in some other state, and is up to date. Each year we are compiling new lists as some of these places move, or go out of business and new business places are started giving added employment to members of our race.

Babar the elephant, one of the most beloved and classic characters in children's literature, showcases his favorite parts of the City of Lights in this memorable trip to Paris, France. Laurent de Brunhoff's Paris is filled with charming elephants on every page as they enjoy all the sights and sounds of one of Europe's most popular cities. This all-new full-color picture book, rendered in beautiful watercolors, evokes the classic feel of the bestselling "Babar's Museum of Art," and it will become a must-have read for fans of Babar, those planning a family trip to Paris, and anyone new to the wondrous world of Babar. When Babar's youngest daughter, Isabelle, heads to Paris on her own for the first time, he tells her how to enjoy the iconic city to the fullest. An expert Francophile, Babar recommends food, including cafes, street markets, and brasseries; he also offers the best sightseeing tips, especially observing the Eiffel Tower from every angle, walking along the banks of the Seine, visiting the Louvre and Orangerie museums, and exploring the Luxembourg Gardens. There's even a postcardperfect opening scene that features the Babar family visiting the Notre Dame Cathedral on a previous vacation. Babar also gives local advice. He tells Isabelle how apartment buildings work, why an elephant may be surprised by the size of an elevator, how to take the metro, how to find a restaurant to call your own, and to walk walk as much as possible to see everything that Paris has to offer. In the end, Isabelle is encouraged to enjoy her travels, but she is also lovingly reminded to always come home to Celesteville and her family. Like other classic children's books featuring international adventures, including "Madeline in London" and "Eloise in Paris," readers will be eager to take the trip to Paris with Babar. "

If you are interested in this book, you're probably planning a family trip to Paris. Whether you are a museum lover or not, you may be wondering whether to include museum visits in this trip or wait until the kids are older. If you have decided to include museums in your trip - or if you are still debating - this is the book for you! Paris is known for its famous museums and they are a must-see, even for those who don't habitually visit museums. With the right support, children can get a lot out of visiting these museums, too. However, the reality is that it can be a struggle to convince your kids to go to museums with you. And when kids do go, their impatience can keep parents from enjoying the visit. Often, children are unfamiliar with and don't understand what they are seeing - causing everyone's frustration to grow. That's where the "Kids' Travel Guide - Paris Museums" comes in. It will introduce your children to the world of museums and art. Leonardo, their very own guide, will give them interesting facts and fun tasks and quizzes related to four main art museums and the children's science museum. Kids will learn the basics of painting and different art styles, as well as how to play the museum game. The "Kids' Travel Guide - Paris Museums" is designed to encourage your children to experiment, be active, and of course, internalize information and experiences during the trip and afterward. Maybe you, the parents, will learn something too. Additionally, the book includes Summary pages (with questions that encourage kids to write their impressions of the museums), a Most Beautiful Piece of Art competition, and more. You may also be interested in the "Kids' Travel Guide - France" and the "Kids' Travel Guide - Paris". And a special edition is available that contains both the France and Paris guides, plus this Paris Museum guide, all in one. The "Kids Travel Guide - France" focuses on basic background information about France: its geography, flags and symbols, and interesting history. It also helps kids get to know the French culture, including customs, language, and even food. Don't worry ... Leonardo delivers all this information in a very interesting and colorful way - through special graphic design, activities, fun facts, and tasks. The "Kids' Travel Guide - Paris" focuses on top attractions for kids in the City of Lights. Leonardo introduces the kids to each site, engages them with fun facts, gives them tips and quizzes, and challenges them with tasks and activities. Get the most out of your family travel!
