The author reminisces about her past, how her younger sibling and she were locked up in a tiny room, how the two of them were lost in the country and how the sudden and untimely, tragic death of her mother completely changed the lives of her brother and sister and herself. She writes about the fear she and other passengers felt when aboard a ship sailing to the U.K. the crew had to wrestle a mad individual to bring him under control. The author witnessed on a film set in London a famous dancer's clothes catching afire as she (the dancer) was dancing on set. She explains how by the grace of God she could have been branded a thief and possibly receive a jail term. A coup in her native Trinidad prevented her from returning home from London and the anxiety passengers, of whom she was one, experienced when a bird flew into the engine of a plane taking them to London from Barcelona and was forced to return to Barcelona. What better way to sharpen your wits and your puzzle skills than with Mensa's book of Riddles & Conundrums? You always said you were smart. Now here's a chance to prove it, with the most challenging crossword collection ever. There are very few black squares in these crosswords, which means that most of the answers are long. Some of the information required challenges every facet of your general knowledge. And even when the answers aren't hard, the clues can be quite tricky. Try this, in the long answer category: what's a 15-letter word for Psychiatrists' suggestions, sometimes? In the area of specialised learning, do you know what Limon or Vanila (10 letters) refers to? And in the matter of tricky clues: what's the five-letter answer to 'nui loa' ('Fondest regards, ' in Maui)? Give up? Answers: ANTIDEPRESSANTS, BACARDI RUM, and ALOHA. If you can fill in all the blanks in these 72 cranium crushers, you're super smart, indeed. About MENSA: - Mensa is the internationally renowned high IQ society which has a worldwide membership of almost 100,000 members in more than 100 countries. There are 28,000 members in the UK, including 2,200 Junior Mensans under the age of 16. To join Mensa, the only requirement for membership is that an individual's IQ falls within the top 2 per cent of the population. A house full of five teenagers and two preteens is a recipe for trouble anywhere. But in 1974, when the Stewarts move their clan from suburban America to live in central France, it becomes rip-roaring hilarious, too funny for words. The boisterous high-jinks carry on when the family returns to the Deep South to lead a "normal" life. That is, until grandchildren come along. New challenges arise on each page for this quirky but lovable family. Side-splitting humor is balanced with a strong dose of how to raise kids that will benefit today's modern parents. Everybody agrees, nothing good did happen after midnight in this family!

Presents a collection of sixty-second, no-pencil puzzles, including vowel exchange, rhyme time, and repeaters.

Don't think too hard or you'll never solve these logic puzzles and riddles. The answers to all 187 are easy once you catch the tricky wording. How can you tie a knot in a napkin by holding one end in each hand without letting go of it? Impossible, you say (or your friends will say, if you bet them). But: Cross your arms and hold a tip of the napkin in each hand.

When you uncross your arms, the knot will be formed! Now try this riddle: I climbed up a cherry tree, where I found cherries. I did not pick cherries, nor did I leave cherries. How can you explain this?

Answer: I climbed up a cherry tree with two cherries in my hand. I picked only one. I left the other one on the tree. I did not "pick cherries," because I "picked a cherry." Take this dare: My bird can fly faster than any supersonic plane. Here's how: If you put my bird inside any plane and make it fly in the same direction as the plane, it will go faster than the plane. 96 pages, 52 b/w illus., 5 3/8 x 8 1/4.
